

Sixth Martinez History Lecture Series

March 12 – April 9, 2010

Public Invited – Free Admission

Held at: Martinez Senior Community Center
818 Green Street, Martinez, CA

Presented by the Martinez Historical Society
Upon arriving, please sign in at the Senior Center Office

All lectures begin at 1:00 P.M.

- Friday, March 12, 2010

Melissa Jacobson, Professor of History, DVC at the San Ramon Campus: “WWII in the East Bay: A Diablo Valley College Travel Study Course.” Professor Jacobson will introduce a unique online class that includes local interviews, photographs and podcasts.

- Friday, March 19, 2010

Betty Reid Soskin, Cultural Resources Assistant, National Park Service presents: “The roles of women in the WWII home front workplace, and the societal changes that followed their emancipation from hearth and home.”

- Friday, March 26, 2010

Albert Lomeli and Rhonda Hammons present: “A Biography of a WWII Marine” by Al Lomeli, and “A Daughter’s Visit to Peleliu’s Battleground” by Rhonda Hammons.

- Friday, April 2, 2010

Authors, Traci Parent and Karen Terhune present a PowerPoint History of the Black Diamond Mines and the people who lived in the various towns located on the eastern side of Mt. Diablo.

- Friday, April 9, 2010

Kevin Damstra, Naturalist, East Bay Regional Park District: Join a District Naturalist for this one hour exploration into the past, present, and future of our Regional Parks and the communities they are a part of.

Contact: Andrea Blachman, Martinez Historical Society Museum Director
925-372-7146

Or The Martinez Senior Center
925-370-8770